

American Fork Locals and Personals

Mr. and Mrs. James Chipman, Jr., were Salt Lake visitors Tuesday.

Stephen Woods was down from Eureka a few days during the week.

Miss Bertha Gadd of Provo was American Fork visitor this week.

Choice sweet, juicy oranges, large yellow bananas and splendid lemons at Chipman's Grocery Dept. 28-11

Lester Chipman returned home from Logan Monday after a ten days' visit there.

The stork left a fine baby boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wagstaff, Monday.

Miss Emma Birch, who is employed at Salt Lake City, was here visiting relatives Sunday and Monday.

Horace Beck, a student of the U. of U. of Salt Lake, spent part of the week here.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bird of Springville spent a few days here this week visiting Mr. and Mrs. John McTague.

Mr. and Mrs. Reno Vance and Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Corbett were Provo visitors Washington's Birthday.

Mr. Albert Paxman of Nephi spent the week here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Miller.

Miss Ella Storrs spent Sunday and Monday visiting friends and relatives at Springville.

Miss Millie Robinson returned home Saturday after spending the past three months at Salt Lake City.

Fred Adamson, who joined the army several months ago, is expected home this week for a short visit with relatives.

Karl Nelson, a real estate man from southern Utah, was here Sunday and Monday visiting friends and attending to business affairs.

Auburn Chipman from Salt Lake City spent the week here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen D. Chipman.

Miss Hannah Steele left for her home at Idaho Falls Sunday, after a five weeks' visit here with her aunt, Mrs. W. B. Smith, and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Murdock and Miss Fern Chipman of Provo were guests of President and Mrs. S. L. Chipman Sunday and Monday.

Mr. Robert Hinckley of Provo and Miss Hene Barnes of Kamas were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Chipman Sunday.

A very enjoyable surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly Saturday evening in honor of their daughter, Mrs. George Taylor of Logan, who has been a guest at their home the past ten days. The evening was made a merry one with games, etc., and nice refreshments were served.

Bert Chadwick of Salt Lake City was here part of the week.

Work shirts for men. Chipman's Bargain Basement. Only 35c each.

The dancing party given under the auspices of the Gun Club at the Apollo Monday evening was most successful in every respect.

Miss Melinda Parker is employed with the Utah Power & Light company for a few days, on account of some extra work that is being done.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Greenwood announce the engagement of their daughter, Myrtle, to Joseph Walton of this city. The wedding will take place March 11.

Word was received here this week that Elder Bert Storrs, who has been laboring in the French mission for the past two years, will receive his release about March 8. He will visit Belgium, Switzerland, Germany and England on his way home, and is expected here about April 1.

Messrs. Clark and Hickman report the sale of the Walter Needham property in the Second Ward, and also the D. P. Adamson property in the Fourth Ward.

Mrs. W. B. Smith entertained a number of her friends on Friday afternoon. The main feature of the occasion was quilting, during which music was rendered and social chat enjoyed. At 5:30 a delicious supper was served the guests, who were Mrs. Orpha Robinson, Mrs. Charlotte Greenwood, Mrs. Sina Nielson, Mrs. Ellen Proctor, Mrs. Jane Forbes and Mrs. Melissa Greenwood.

Mr. Clifton Peirce was at Salt Lake on business Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Woods were Salt Lake City visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kelly were Benjamin visitors Washington's Birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford E. Young spent Monday and Tuesday visiting friends and relatives at Salt Lake.

Mrs. Tempest Robinson and children of Idaho were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robinson Monday.

Mr. Angus Cunningham returned home Tuesday after a two months' stay at Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Garff of Lehi spent Monday and Tuesday here visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. John H. Dixon of Payson was here Friday visiting his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hickman.

Mrs. Jared Keller entertained a number of her friends at a dinner party at her home Tuesday in honor of her husband's birthday.

Mr. Andrew Adamson of Salt Lake, formerly of this city was here Wednesday and Thursday visiting relatives and renewing old acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. John Binns entertained at a family dinner party at their home Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mr. Binns' father's—Mr. Isaac Binns—85th birthday.

Miss Emma Ingersoll, who is taking a nursing course at the L. D. S. hospital, was here a few days this week, visiting friends and relatives.

Why not put aside our selfish pride and use Chipman's Star Brand Flour? No better made. Every sack you buy helps to build up home environments. 28-11

Mr. and Mrs. William Catmull and family of Biggs, Cal. arrived here this week and are residing in the J. E. Jensen residence.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Houtz, parents of Mrs. J. H. Shepherd and Evan Houtz of Springville, were guests at the Shepherd home a few days this week.

The carpenter work on the Stake Tabernacle was finished on Thursday. There is some little painting to do before it will be completed. The electric fixtures are yet to be installed.

Miss Vivian Finlinson and Miss Nettie Knudson of Provo were in American Fork visiting the schools Tuesday. They took dinner with Miss Finlinson's uncle, Mr. F. L. Hickman. The ladies gave many complimentary words of praise for our city.

A number of the American Fork friends of Mr. and Mrs. Price pleasantly surprised them on Monday evening by visiting them at their home in the Fourth Ward, with the aim in view of having a good sociable time. Games and music made the evening a most desirable one. A splendid luncheon was served to about thirty guests.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Edmonds entertained the Comus Club and friends at a Washington's Birthday party at their home. The rooms were beautifully decorated in the Washington effect, presenting a cheerful and pretty appearance, with flags, hatchets, cherries, etc. Appropriate games furnished a good evening's enjoyment for the guests. A delicious luncheon was served. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Willes Bromley, Reno Vance, T. F. Corbett, Roy Greenwood, Ellis Preston, Will Barratt, H. H. Hurt, Misses Myrtle King, Lizzie Thornton, Florence Dunkley, Eliza Hindley, Clara Wootton, Messrs. Joseph Walton, W. A. Huckins, Percy Craven, Ray Hoover of Provo, and Mrs. Abe Chadwick of Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Peters went to Provo on Monday to visit relatives.

Miss Lula Horner of Heber city spent the week here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Peirce.

Mrs. Mary Foster of Salt Lake City was the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. A. Lee, this week.

That's a comical ad of Chipman's in this issue, but it tells the whole story. Just take time to read it. Monarch Steel Ranges are certainly the best make. 28-11

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Peirce were Springville visitors on Washington's Birthday and Monday.

Miss Velma Duncan returned to her school work at Draper Monday after a few days' visit here.

Cheerless and dreary has been some of the weather of late; rain and snow, a little sunshine, then more rain or snow; but a consistent winter indicates an early spring, which will be spring indeed when it arrives, and not a temporary halting place between two winters. One of the comforting thoughts is the precipitation has been much heavier than usual and has come in such form and in such manner as to store it away in the hills for summer use.

Misses Jessie Green and Luna Chipman, students of the B. Y. U., spent Saturday and Sunday visiting their parents.

This week L. J. Durrant of Thatcher, Idaho, sent us a check for more home news and says: "I certainly enjoy reading your paper."

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Crosby of Salt Lake City spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Nancy Forbes, mother of Mrs. Crosby.

Messrs. D. J. Strong and J. J. Beck of Alpine were in the city Tuesday getting things ready for the old folks' party, which was held at Alpine on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Brown and Mr. Herbert Wright, who have been at Los Angeles and San Francisco for the past four months, returned home Tuesday. On their return trip they spent a few days visiting Nevada cities and towns.

Prof. E. S. Hinckley of the B. Y. U. of Provo was the speaker at the First Ward Sunday. He gave an excellent lecture to the Parents' Class in the morning and a very interesting talk at the sacrament meeting. Both meetings were well attended by large and appreciative audiences.

TICKETS 50c.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Friday and children were Pleasant Grove visitors Sunday.

A man is a little over-zealous who will pull through the mud for a mile or more for flour when he can get just as good close home. 28-11

Postmaster and Mrs. L. S. Harrington and family were guests of relatives at Provo, Sunday.

A home-coming for Elders Milton Chipman, Clyde Crookston, Lester Chipman and Lennie Harrington, who have recently returned from missions, was held in the Second Ward meeting-house Friday evening.

"Store news" may be found interesting always. For the buying problem is a daily problem; and a hint, or a fact, as to real money-saving possibilities makes a store ad WORTH MONEY TO THOSE WHO READ IT.

Monday's Deseret News: J. A. Mathias, a drug clerk of American Fork, suffered a scalp wound last night when he fell to the pavement at 78 East First South street, while talking to a companion. Mathias was taken to the emergency hospital by Patrolman Crow and was found to be suffering from heart trouble. His wound was dressed by Dr. H. B. Sprague and he was sent to his room at the Wilson.

APOLLO HALL

Reno Vance, Manager.

DANCE

FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 6, 1914

Another evening of enjoyment for all who may attend this popular dancing hall. The floor is unique and music excellent.

MARRIED FOLKS CORDIALLY INVITED ALSO.

LADIES FREE

Brighten Up

WITH NEW RUGS

Brighten Up

WE HAVE THE LARGEST ASSORTMENT WE HAVE EVER CARRIED. PRICED AT $4.00 TO $37.50 EACH

NEW LINOELUMS---beautiful patterns at $1.00 per yard. NEW WALL PAPER---all the new designs from 10c per roll up. NEW FURNITURE for every room of the home from pantry to parlor. NEW RANGES---There is absolutely no better range made than the "South Bend Malleable." Agents for the celebrated "Acme Quality" Paints. Use "Chinamel" for inside work and furniture.

Brighten Up

AM. FORK CO-OP. INST.

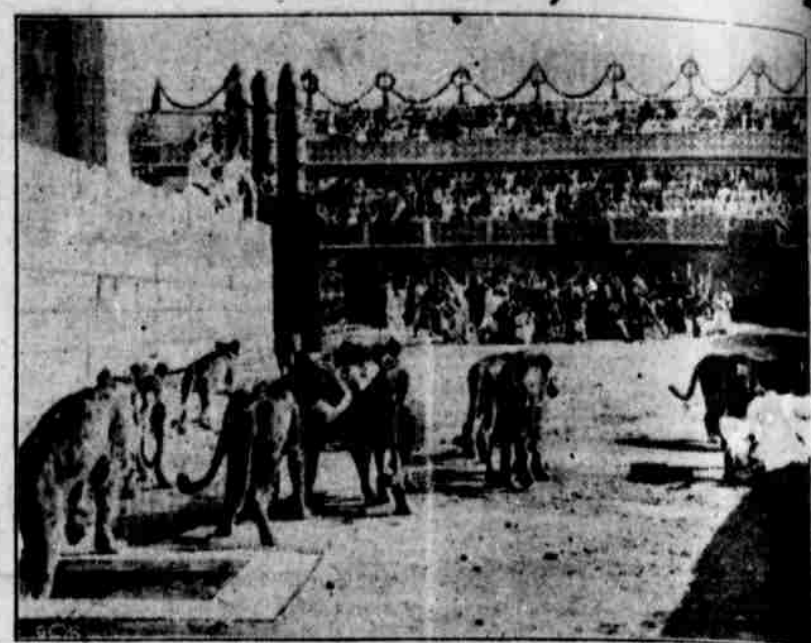

"The People's Store"

Brighten Up

ORIENT THEATRE

AMERICAN FORK CLIFTON PEIRCE, Manager.

A Picture Show of Quality.

Scene from "QUO VADIS," which will be shown at the Orient Theatre Friday and Saturday, March 6 and 7, with Matinee each day. Prices 15 and 25 cents. Matinees start at 3:30. Evening performances at 7 and 9 o'clock.

MONDAY NIGHT, MARCH 2.

Daniel Frohman presents Mary Pickford, supported by Ernest Truax and Owen Moore, in Mrs. Fluke's famous success—

"CAPRICE"

An Echo of the Hills, Mingled with the Voice of the City. A Delightful Comedy-Drama of Society, Love and the Great Out-Doors in Motion Pictures. Produced by the Famous Players Film Co., Adolph Zukor, President.

OPERA HOUSE

AMERICAN FORK, UTAH. L. S. HARRINGTON, Mgr.

THE HOUSE WHERE YOU GET YOUR FULL MONEY'S WORTH.

TONIGHT ONLY. 10c TO ALL. At the Opera House will be presented the wonderful seven-reel picture

"CLEOPATRA"

MONDAY and TUESDAY, March 2 and 3

The Rich Musical Company, with Eighteen Dancers and Singers. Don't miss it.

WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY, MARCH 4 and 5

"The Stolen Inheritance" (Pathe Drama)

Which is a winner sure

"The Janitor's Revenge—The Maytrey of the Milk" (Biograph Comedy)

A Splendid Two-Reel Play that Created the Sensation of the Hour When Seen in Salt Lake City, entitled

"THE LOST MILLIONAIRE"

(Vitagraph Drama)—Parts 1 and 2.

FRIDAY and SATURDAY, March 6 and 7

Will be seen a continuation of the series of "MARY," wherein she receives a proposal from the Duke. See this to appreciate it.

"Her Sick Father"—"The Lost Switch"

(Lubin Comedy)

"THE END OF THE CIRCLE"

(Essany Drama)—A two-reel feature

The people of our town certainly appreciate good pictures. That's why they continue to go to the Opera House.

Mr. E. P. McDrew of Salt Lake City has accepted the position as clerk in the Briggs Pharmacy.

Mr. John Chadwick is reported as being very ill.

A baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Houston Monday. Mother and babe doing nicely.

Attorney Clarence M. Beck spent Tuesday and Wednesday at the capital on legal business.

Choice Cut Flowers

Ferns and Floral Designs. Send to the Lehi Floral Co., Lehi, Telephone 20-J. We deliver PROMPTLY 1YR.

NOW READY

The "Aspect of the Liquor Question," by Judge Adolph Nielsen, are now finished and are carried by local dealers as well as by the author. They are concise, convincing and bristling with facts.